Challenges

If any player thinks the outcome of your narration is uncertain, you've been challenged.

Meet the challenge by getting a hit via some other rule.

If you don't, whoever posed the challenge narrates the outcome instead.

Flip to use Simple Dice

Simple Dice

If you need to meet a challenge and have no other way to do so,

or if the outcome ought to be random, you can roll 1d6.

- On 1-3, you don't meet the challenge
- On 4-6, you get 1 hit

Flip to not use dice

X-Card

"I'd like your help. Your help to make this game fun for everyone. If anything makes anyone uncomfortable in any way, just lift this card up, or simply tap it. You don't have to explain why. It doesn't matter why. When we lift or tap this card, we simply edit out anything X-Carded."

Read aloud, then flip this card

X-Card

"And if there is ever an issue, anyone can call for a break and we can talk privately. I know it sounds funny but it will help us play amazing games together and usually I'm the one who uses the X card to protect myself from all of you! Please help make this game fun for everyone. Thank you!"

Condition Cards

You've been affected by a temporary problem. Injury, delirium, debts, magical curses, and so on are all conditions.

You can choose to take a condition to get a hit. Describe how. Any player offering a challenge can suggest an appropriate condition that meets that challenge.

The condition is true and limits your fictional actions. If you narrate an action the condition would interfere with, you must meet the challenge of the condition in addition to any other challenges.

You can flip a topside condition to worsen it and get another hit. Describe how.

Clearing conditions takes time. Use this time to drive drama or build the world by exploring how you clear the condition.

Condition Examples

Suggested uses of condition cards.

Clearing condition takes a scene or downtime. Use this time to set up or pay off plotlines relevant to the condition.

- You take Hurt to score a telling blow on the enemy.
- The facilitator says you can take the long way around the danger, but you'll be Weakened.
- Another player suggests that messing with the idol will leave you Magicked.
- A cloud of darkness envelops you. If you want to stay in it, meet the challenge by taking Hindered (blind), otherwise you leave the cloud.
- You spend a scene being healed by our cleric to discard Hurt. You wanted to talk to her anyway, about...
- You spend a week of downtime doing odd jobs to pay off Indebted. During that time, you listen for new adventure opportunities.
